"To everything there is a season, and a

“A Man for All Seasons”—Grant Brown

The Yearbook Staff is pleased to dedicate this 1969 ELK to you, Mr. Grant Brown, in appreciation for all your efforts on behalf of the Elkland student body during the twelve years you have taught here.

You are truly a man for all seasons. In 1940 you graduated from Eagar Elementary School and in 1944, from Round Valley High School, where you were student body president in your senior year. After high school, you joined the Navy and became a baker and a cook. It's been said you even made coffee for the sailors!

You were married to your wife, Innis, on January 5, 1951, and your family now numbers eight children: Danny, Jimmy, David, Nanette, Steven, Linn, Shelly and Shannon. You earned your Bachelor of Science degree at Utah State University in 1954 and later completed requirements for a Master of Industrial Education degree at the same University. You taught in Oregon four years before coming to Round Valley. A highlight of your life was when you were named Bishop of the Eagar Second Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, on November 25, 1967. You've been an inspiration to all who have come in contact with you.

JV's pile up points in victory march against Blue Ridge. Kayle Hamblin (No. 11) scores in Camp Verde game.

Ron Johnson carries for much needed yardage and brother Jack ends up upside down after yardage gain.

Speedy Johnny Chavez darts through line in one of his victory runs. Football season is kicked off September 20.

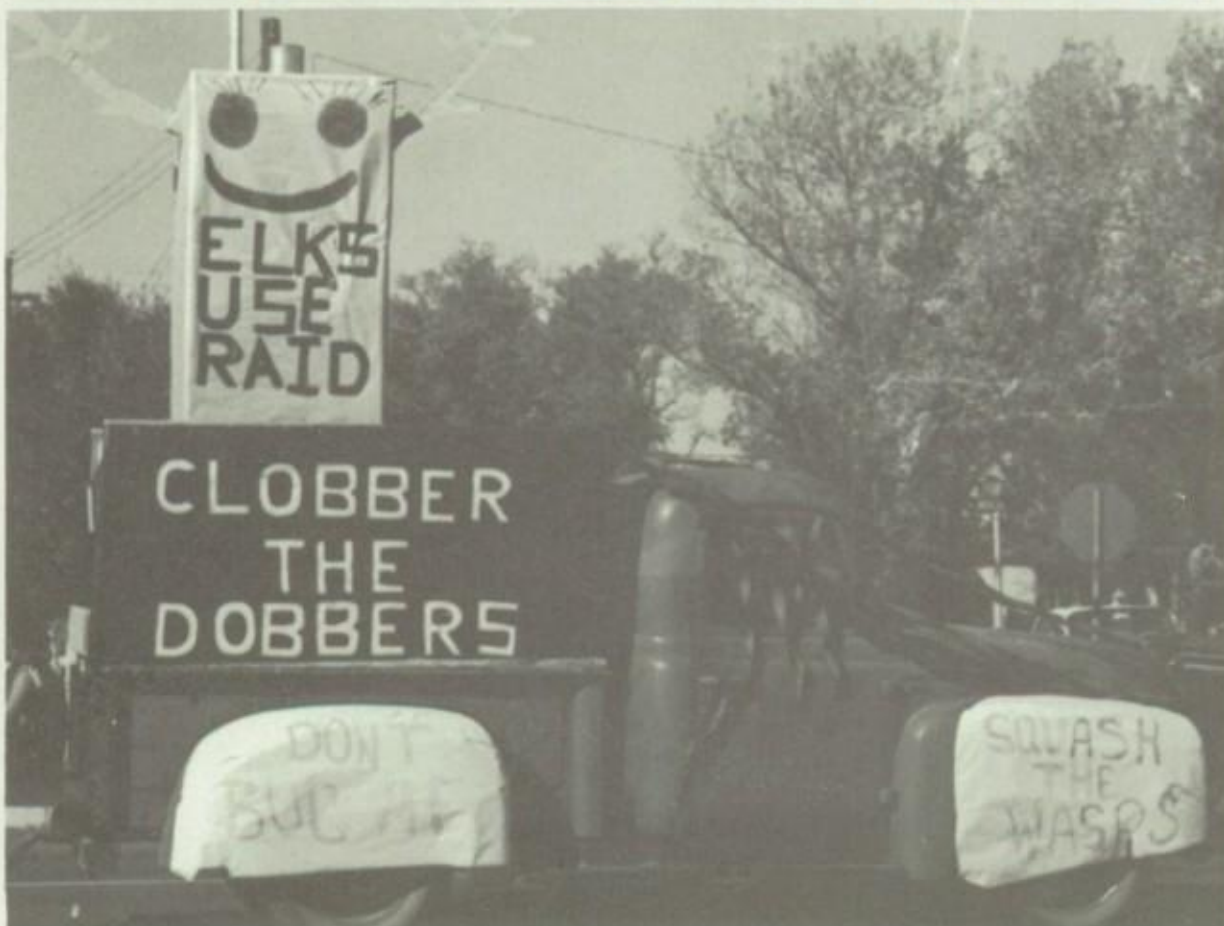

Camp Verde is stopped cold by the Elks who allowed little scoring by their opponents during the season.

Organizations Give Continuity, Zest

Student Body President Owen Nelson introduces the faculty in the opening of school assembly on August 26. Organizations played a big part in school life.

to Student Life

The Round Valley High Music Department added much color to school life. The marching band, pom pon girls and twirlers marched at half time of football games, performed at the Arizona State Fair in November and presented concerts for the enjoyment of all. The choir, with 50 members, also added color and zest as the girls wore beautiful maroon velvet formals and the boys wore gold blazers. The music department is under the direction of Mr. Roy King. Chelisa Hall is head majorette and Jolene LeSueur and Charlotte Wilkins are twirlers.

Student Council members Chris Wise, Ken Harper, Marta Jirsa, Owen Nelson, Hariella Haws, Kaynetta Slade, Jeanne Wiltbank, Annabelle Chavez, Patricia Hamblin, Kevin Hamblin, Jackie Bosen, Tina Sherwood, David Walden, Todd Bosen, Jan Wright, Jacquelyn Thompson, Lynda Hill and Eldon Pon provided leadership for the student bodies. The council hosted an area student council meeting in October and Owen was elected president.

Members of the yearbook staff, under the leadership of Editor Liz Nava, Business Manager Hariella Haws and Head Photographer Todd Bosen, put in many extra hours producing the 1969 Elk and raising the money to pay for the bigger book which features 12 of its 128 pages in color. The Springfield Elementary School entered a float in the homecoming parade with a theme of "Clobber the Dobbers" and won third place in the community category.

Elks Excel in All Five Sports Along with Student Academic Achievements

Five sports offer Elkland students a chance to participate in the one or ones of interest to them. The season for football arrives when the trees begin to change color and lose their leaves. The final regular season game of the 1968 season was played with snow on the ground and high winds. Winter arrived and sports moved inside the Elk gym with basketball and wrestling the sports available.

Spring with its blustery winds and bright sunshine finally arrived and student athletes moved outdoors once more for track and field events and the sport with ever growing popularity, baseball. The Elks have acquired a reputation for fielding championship teams in all sports through the years and this year was no exception. Townspeople have backed the teams all the way.

Charles Wiltbank throws the discus in a track meet on the Elk Track. Johnny Chavez, who participates in three sports at Round Valley High, knocks the ball a good distance in one of the baseball games. The baseball team is coached by Diz Reeves.

Denny Finch, Owen Nelson, Jimmy Finch, Carl Whiting, Frank Haws were five of the returning lettermen on the Elk Wrestling Squad which was under the direction of Coach Darwin Slade.

Clayton Slade and Jacque Thompson run off stencils in office practice. Mr. Taylor explains the judicial department in American Government. Raymond Soares made a hit with students in a January 15 assembly. Mr. Lewis describes minerals in Earth Science. Brad Anderson works on a bookkeeping problem while another national assembly featured trained goats and dogs performing for students.

Record Enrollment Swells Student Body to 275 Active, Interested Elks

Growing pains, crowded classrooms, cinders in shoes, muddy paths, dashes from building to building between classes, new Faculty members to become acquainted with, new classmates for friends, a new principal, a new school secretary and, most of all, lots of students in the halls all became a part of school life during the 1968-1969 school year at Round Valley High. Enrollment increased by more than 50 students over the previous year but student schedules were re-arranged adequately and there was a place for every one of the Elks in the full academic offering by a qualified faculty and life settled down to its usual pace.

A brand new intercom system provided necessary contact between the buildings as students dashed from classes in the new building, now called "A Building" and the old building which received the name of "B Building" despite its seniority on the Elkland campus. Physical education classes met in the gym or on the football field while Industrial Arts classes were held in the well-equipped shop quarters attached to the gym. The parking lot became the central hub of activities before school and at noon as students met friends here and listened to car stereo tapes. Class spirit was demonstrated at pep assemblies.

"We're always ready to help you" say faculty members Mrs. Dude Coombs and Mr. Jay Coombs on registration day when a record number of students gathered to work out their schedules for a brand new school year. Mr. Don Johnson and Mr. Grant Brown assisted with the yearbook staff's project of raffling off a redskin to be burned prior to the St. John's football game.

Jeanne Wiltbank assists Mr. Robert Mason of National School Assemblies with a program on extra-sensory perception held quite appropriately on Friday, September 13. ESP proved very interesting.

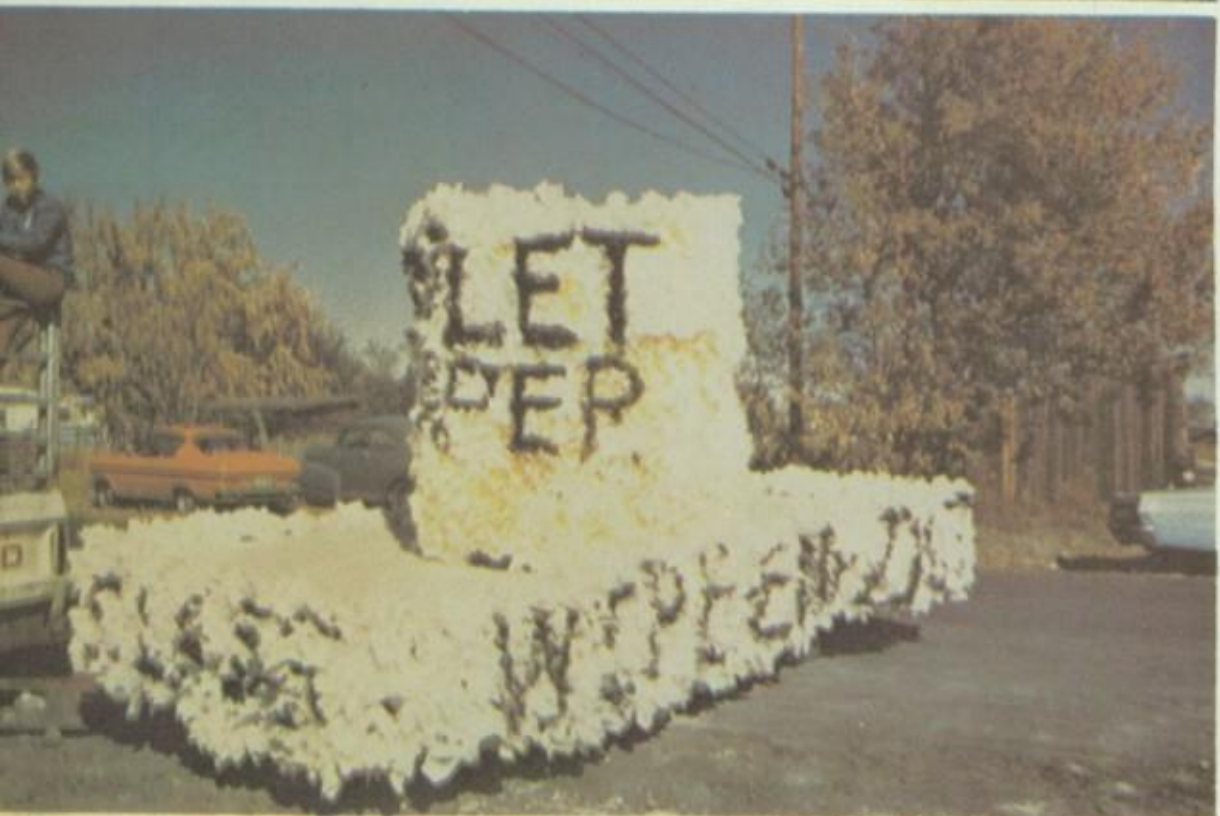

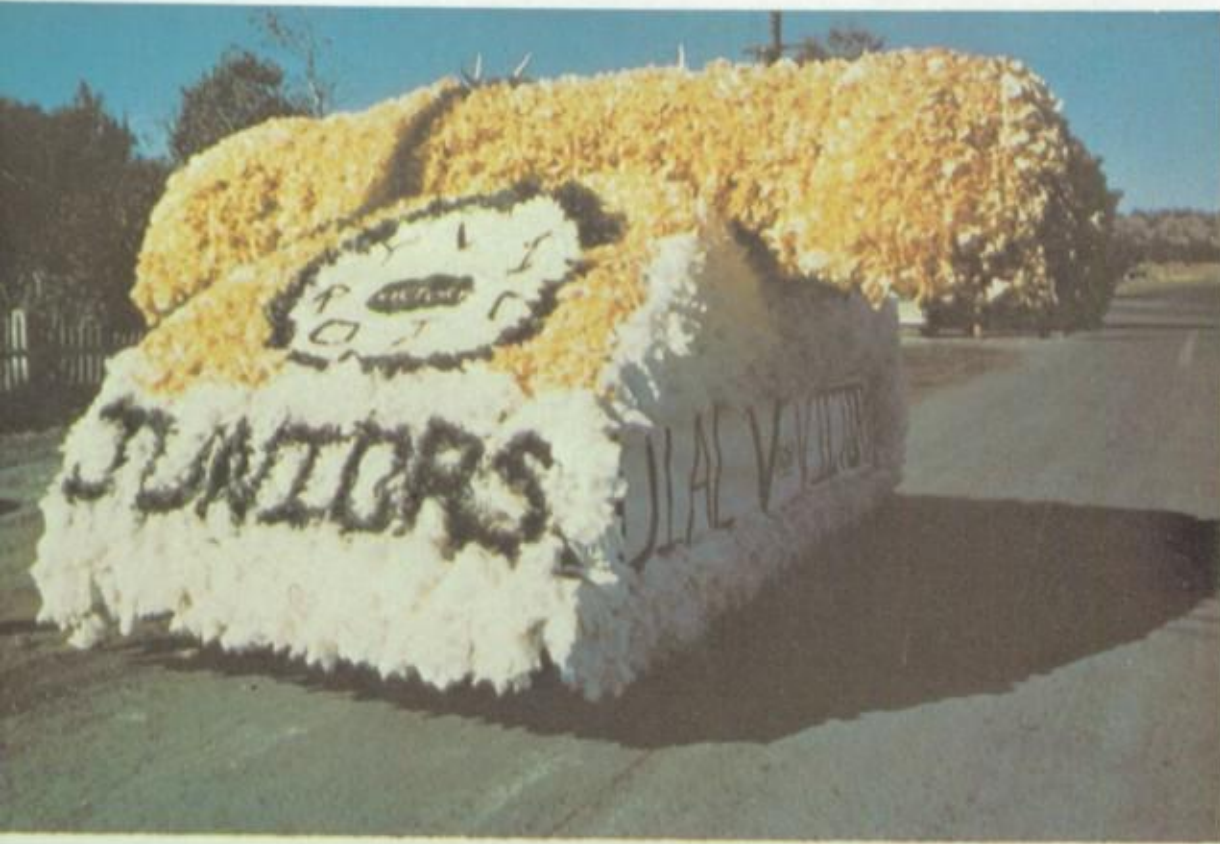

Members of the student council took over many of the clerical chores on registration day. Secretary Chris Wise helped assign lockers to students while other council members sold books in the Elk Bookstore.

Juniors, C.Y.O. in Homecoming

Homecoming 1968 featured a theme of "A Salute to Alumni Stars" on October 25. The day, with the Senior class in charge, began with a parade through Eagar and Springerville with 7 floats and 2 bands. The afternoon football game was played on Elk Field with Blue Ridge and a gala dance in the evening topped off activities dedicated to class of 52.

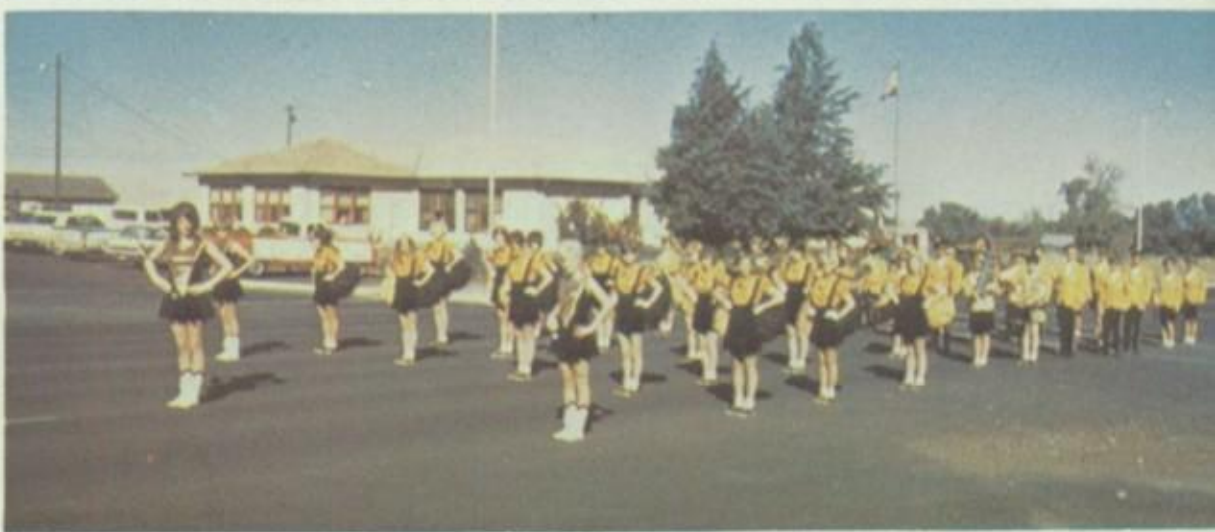

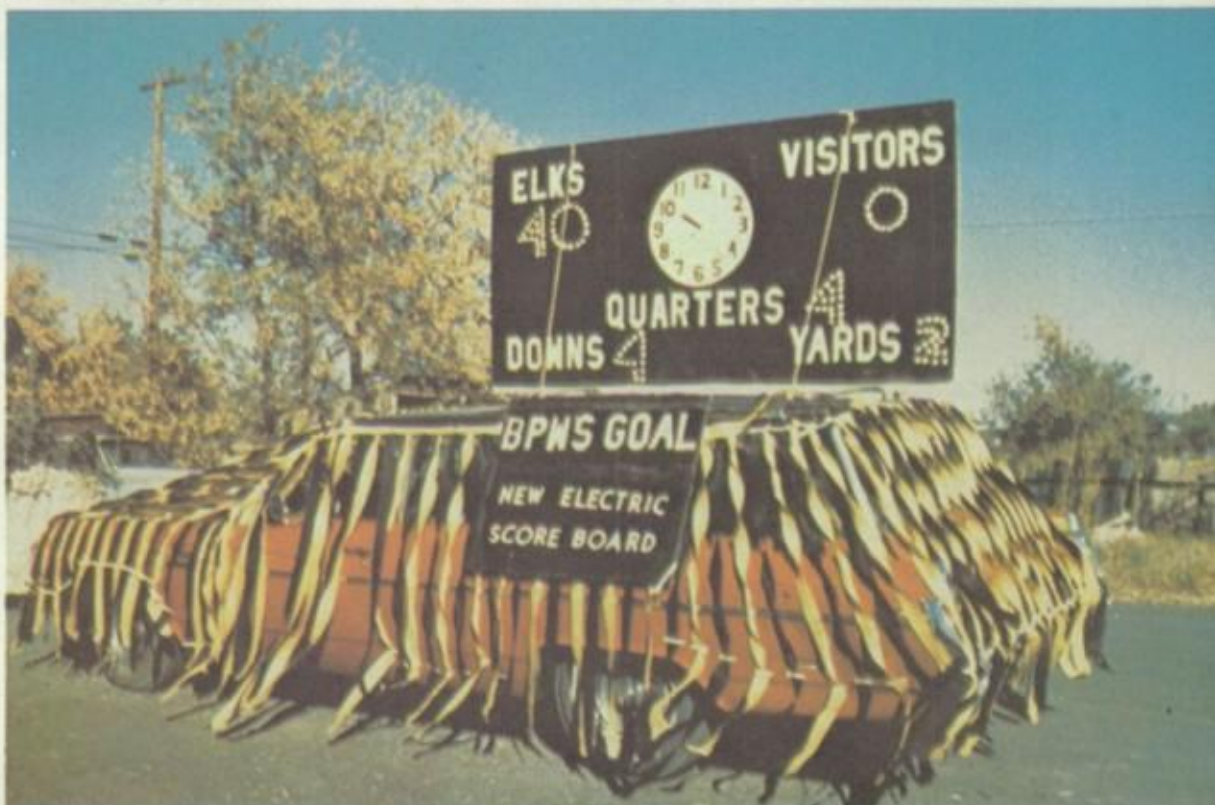

Win Sweepstakes '68 Festivities

First place in the school category was awarded to the Junior Class with their telephone float with a theme of "Dial V for Victory". Second place went to the Senior Class float featuring a can of bug spray and a yellowjacket, "Raid 'Em". Third place went to the toilet paper float of the Freshman Class with its theme of "Wipe 'Em Out". The Sophomores spooky float, "We've Got Spirit" was awarded fourth place honors.

In the community category, first place was given to the Catholic Youth Organization float, "Swat 'Em" while second place went to the Springerville Business and Professional Women's Club featuring its goal of a new electric scoreboard for the Elk football and baseball fields. Third place went to Springerville Elementary and its "Clobber the Dobbers" float also featuring a can of Raid. The school also entered its band and girls softball team.

The Elk band, twirlers, pom pon girls, cheerleaders and color guards mounted on horseback provided extra color for the day. Kaylma Gillespie and Charles Fuentes were crowned queen and king while Charles Wiltbank and Janice Waelbroeck were prince and princess.

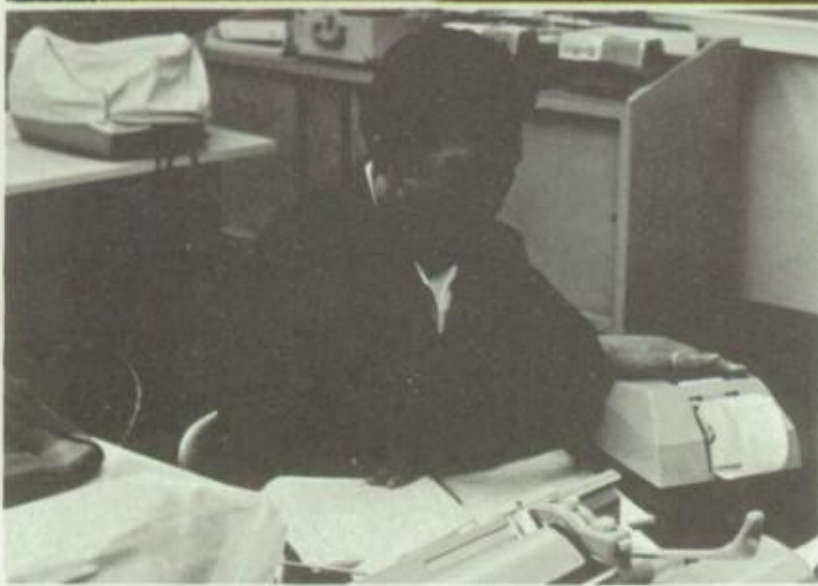

“Deep in the Valley Stands The School . .

we love so well. Round Valley High School, must we say farewell. We, thy sons and daughters, lift our voices to the sky, and the hills re-echo, sending back the cry — R. V., Round Valley High School, alma mater proud are we. R. V., Round Valley High School, thy sons to be.”

Sharyl Hooper and Gloria Queen, 1968 graduates of Round Valley High, along with Seniors Jolene LeSueur, Bonnie Bounds and Jeanne Wiltbank entered the Miss Apache County Contest in late August. Sharyl was chosen Miss Apache County and Gloria was second runnerup. Gloria was later chosen Miss E.A.J.C. and will compete in Miss Arizona contest along with Sharyl.

Johnny Chavez yawns over a perplexing problem in bookkeeping. Elizabeth Nava, Marta Jirsa, Jan Wright and Patsy Miles represented RV at the journalism convention. Charles Fuentes and Kaynetta Slade were put through their paces by their purchasers on Senior Slave Day.

The Freshman class was ably led by Kevin Hamblin as president, Patricia Hamblin as Vice-President, Pam Hall as secretary, Jackie Bosen and Annabelle Chavez as the senators. The class was advised by Coach Garry Taylor and Coach Diz Reeves. The class was introduced to high school life in an initiation ceremony in early September that involved wearing crazy attire, painting the R. V. on the hill and singing the school song on command of Elkland Seniors. Scott Coombs, Pam Burk, Rachel Bloomfield and Paula Slade sing for some of the seniors.

Frosh Initiated into Elkland Society

The girls rest after a strenuous task of whitewashing the "R.V." letters on the hill while frosh boys Rusty Wright, Ray Logan, Steve Wise, Micky Finch, Clifford Finch and others retrieve tires from the pond below the letters on the command of student council members in charge. The freshmen, however, got a chance at revenge on the seniors when they were able to buy a senior slave at auction and have the slave act at their command, carry books, sing for them and other crazy stunts. The initiation proved to be exciting although tiring and freshmen now became a part of the Elkland student body.

Gained 2317 yards to 414 for opponents in regular season games. Defense allowed only 103 yards rushing for all-time record. Averaged 6.3 yards gained per play to 2.5 for opponents.

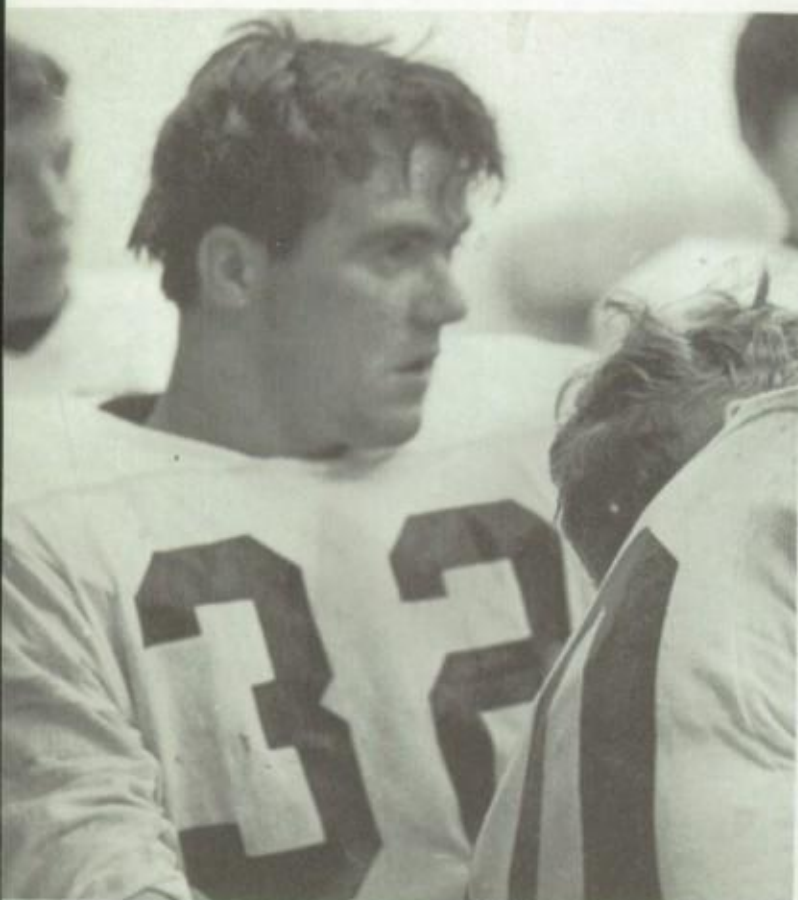

Rushing Yards

The Elks, undefeated in regular season play, tied the school's record for the highest number of wins in a season with 10 wins and only 1 loss. The Elks had total offense of 3742 yards to 1211 for their opponents. Throughout the season, half time talks proved very beneficial to the Elks as they planned offensive and defensive strategy for the 2nd half. It proved correct in the Clifton game. Ron Johnson QB throws to Johnny Chavez for a long completion. Coach Taylor, stationed on the Clifton fence with his walkie-talkie, relayed valuable information to Coaches Reeves and Slade. He was threatened a few times but remained at his post! Coach Reeves gave many talks to the student body through the '68 campaign towards state and the most memorable one was before the Elks left for Thatcher to meet the "mighty Marana Tigers", who are actually a Class A School. Highlights of the '68 campaign were victories over Clifton, St. Johns and Parker. The great Elk fullback, Charles Wiltbank, booms his way through Clifton defenses as No. 10 Ron Johnson prepares to throw a block for Big Chuck. Elks were No. 2 in the state. They came as close to being defeated as they could when they played the Alchesay Falcons Oct. 31. They couldn't get their offense rolling and scored only 2 TD's and Alchesay scored 1. It was rumored that the Falcon Stadium clock was on "double time" operating speed as the Elks had the ball only 3 times during the 1st half but fate and lady luck appeared and the Elks pulled it out during the final moments. Coach Reeves had many expressions during the year—here he expresses disbelief as the Elks score 42 points in the 1st half against the Payson Longhorns.

Undefeated B-East Champion Elks Beat

The Elks were unbeatable in the 1968 season as their offense scored 403 points and the defense held opponents to 103 yards rushing. Seniors Charles Wiltbank, Ron Johnson and Johnny Chavez led the offensive attack for the Elks. On defense Seniors Bob Heydt, Larry Nicoll, Dale "Ski" Hall, Johnny Chavez, Charles Wiltbank and Ron Johnson were the leaders. Of course, the underclassmen did a great job also but it's the last time to recognize the seniors who did a great job in 1968.

As we pay tribute to the seniors, we won't forget the great job Ron Johnson and Charles Wiltbank did in four years as an Elk. Both boys will be playing college football next year and we wish them the "best of luck" as they represent the great Round Valley Elks.

Parker, Lose to Marana in State Finals

An undefeated season and undisputed possession of the Class B East crown gave the Elks the right to play for the state championship. The Elks proved to be almost unbeatable as they beat Parker by four touchdowns in the first round of the state playoffs on November 22 at Mesa Community College. This victory earned the Elks a berth in the championship game with Marana—Powerhouse in the B Central league. The Elks traveled to Thatcher to meet Marana on November 27 and were edged out by two TD's as the Elks were held on the goal line two times. Both opponents were actually Class A teams as leagues have been "frozen" for 2 years—leaving Parker and Marana in Class B. The 1968 Elks were noted as gentlemen before and after the game but during the game—WOW!

Ramon and Inez Gonzales were crowned spectator king and queen in half time ceremonies of the first basketball game by pom pon girls, cheerleaders and twirlers. Mr. and Mrs. Gonzales have been loyal supporters of Elkland athletic teams for almost a quarter of a century not missing a home game in 24 years.

Ramon, Inez Named Spectator Royalty

Charles Wiltbank received highest football honors at the banquet in January when announcement was made that he will play in the August high school all-star game. A fullback for the Elks, Charles was named co-captain of the all-state team and to the B East team. Ron Johnson, Charles Fuentes and Bob Heydt were also named to the all-state team while Rick Savedra, Glenn Finch and Travis Lytle received honorable mention. Johnny Chavez and Jack Johnson, along with others mentioned, were named to the B East first team.

Elks Take EA; Win 1, Lose 1 At State

Making the Eastern Arizona College Holiday Tournament team were: K. Flores, Hayden; R. Bryce, Pima; Todacheeny, Morenci; K. Lunt, Duncan; Warren Rohrer, Round Valley; T. Anderson, Ft. Thomas; Navarette, Morenci; Eldon Pond, Round Valley; D. Verdugo, Hayden; and Charles Wiltbank, Round Valley. The Elks won the holiday tournament played at E.A.C. in Thatcher on December 26, 27 and 28 with victories over Hayden, Pima and Class A Morenci. The undefeated B East Champion Elks went on to the state tournament and met the number two team in B West, Antelope, at Mesa Westwood High on March 5 and defeated them 65-60. On March 6 the Elks advanced to play at the Coliseum in Phoenix in the semi-finals, meeting Marana who had defeated Monument Valley the evening before. The Tigers were too much for the Elks, though, and a 90-66 loss eliminated Round Valley from the tournament. Parker, B West Champs, beat St. Johns 66-33 in the first round and then defeated Camp Verde 7-48 in the semi-finals. The undefeated B Central Champs, Marana, tangled with Parker and beat them 86-67 for the state Class B Crown. It was a familiar tune—Round Valley beat Parker and then lost to Marana in a bid for the state Class B Football crown.

Janice Waelbroeck, Laura Harlan, Debra Hall and Bonnie Bounds enthusiastically cheered the varsity teams on to victory.

Mrs. Jo An Blair, advisor, gets some help in typing copy from her Siamese cat, "Co Co".

How quickly the seasons pass! We have spent four years here at Elkland that can never be replaced. As we review the colorful events of this past year, we cannot help but feel nostalgic and look back with a certain feeling of melancholy and sadness. But, just as the seasons change, so must we. We can now look forward to our future with high hopes and expectations of success and happiness. As editor, I would like to express my deep appreciation to our administrators, the faculty, the student body, the townspeople and our advertisers and boosters for all their help and cooperation. I would like to give special thanks to my dedicated advisor and all the hardworking members of my staff for all their invaluable efforts in making this 1969 ELK a success.

Hariella Haws, business manager, had a big job this year in the production of the yearbook. All the moneymaking activities of the staff were under her direction.

Once upon a time

many years ago, forest lands were wild, untamed domains — almost jungles. Hidden behind an idyllic conception were the constant ravages of fire, insects, rot and other abuses of Nature. In this very competitive community, survival was a harsh experience. ■ Then forest management came along. And forest lands began an orderly existence. Mature trees were harvested, making room for sunshine and rain, thus creating opportunities for young trees to grow healthy and strong. ■ Today, the forest is a living result of long-range perception . . . and a working example of how intelligent use of natural resources can be of benefit to all.

Spring Supplement

1969 Elk, Round Valley High School

"That which man alters not for the better
... time alters for the worse."
"Feed your faith and your doubts will starve to death."

Two weeks later than planned the 1969 ELK yearbook arrived Memorial Day but students flocked to a signing dance anyway even though school was officially out. The yearbook staff hosted 85 guests at its banquet May 26 as Editor Liz Nava reads dedication to Mr. Brown.

Faculty Falters—Varsity Victorious

The yearbook staff sponsored the Faculty-Varsity basketball game April 31. It was a nip and tuck battle during the first quarter but the varsity pulled ahead 38-25 at half-time. Faculty members got into hot water during the second half and the varsity pulled even further ahead to win 68-55. Clayton Slade, Dennis Wilkins and Charles Wiltbank left the game and only three varsity players, Dale Hall, Jerry Wiltbank and Eldon Pond, were on the floor at the end of the game. Pond scored 19 for the victors while Coach Garry Taylor scored 15 for the losers. Diz Reeves, Jay Coombs, Ray Hamblin, Sam Madariaga, Dennis Silva, and Don Johnson also played for the faculty team. The sixth period game netted the staff $75 towards the color page fund.

Symanck Speaks at

At the annual all-sports banquet held at the VFW Hall May 24, Round Valley High's top athletes were honored for each of the five sports. John Symanck, head football coach at Northern Arizona University addressed the athletes, parents, faculty and friends present. Many of the trophies won during the year were on display. Head Football Coach, Diz Reeves, presented an All-American honorable mention award to Charles Wiltbank and then announced that Travis Lytle was outstanding lineman, Ron Johnson, the top offensive player and Charles Wiltbank, the top defensive player. Head Basketball Coach Marlin LeSueur presented the most inspirational player award to Eldon Pond, the outstanding basketball player award to Warren Rohrer and 70% Free Throw trophies to Dennis Wilkins and Wayne Wiltbank. Wrestling Coach Darwin Slade named Denny Finch outstanding wrestler on the team. Coach Slade also presented track and field awards with Alan Slade and Carl Whiting being named outstanding trackmen and Charles Wiltbank, high point man. Pictured at the right are baseball players named to the B East team: Jack Johnson, Fred Lomeli, Ken Harper, Johnny Chavez, Wayne Wiltbank, Ron Johnson and Lupe Logan. Below are pictured the trio of baseball players winning top honors: Ken Harper won highest baseball honors when named to All-Star team, the outstanding baseball player including best hitter and infielder and B-East first team. Johnny Chavez was named to B East 1st team as a second baseman and Wayne Wiltbank earned a position on the B East 1st team of first baseman. He was also named Elkland's outstanding infielder and was runner-up to the all-around outstanding Elk baseball player.

Sports Banquet

Inspirational advice to athletes and their parents highlighted Mr. Symanck's talk at the All-Sports Banquet. Lettermen's Club President Ron Johnson presented a special award to Mr. Symanck along with awards to the Elk coaches during the evening. Mr. Merle Harper, representing the Springerville Rotary Club, acted as master of ceremonies. Pitching star Fred Lomeli won the pitchers award and is pictured at the lower left with Outstanding Baseball player Ken Harper. Their names were engraved on a plaque that will remain at the school. The Lettermen's Club also presented awards to twirlers and varsity cheerleaders in appreciation of their efforts. Twirlers Charlotte Wilkins, Chelisa Hall and Jolene LeSueur accept their awards as do Varsity Cheerleaders Janice Waelbroeck, Debra Hall, Bonnie Bounds and Laura Harlan.

"I Love How You Love Me"

Sweethearts Ball Ushers in Spring

The Future Homemakers of America sponsored the Sweethearts Ball this year on February 22. The theme, "I Love How You Love Me" was carried out in decorations of pink and white. A mural of a southern mansion surrounded by flowering fruit trees and green lawns dominated decorations from its position on the stage. Apple trees with pink and white blossoms in other parts of the auditorium carried out the color scheme while a false ceiling was hung in pink and white streamers. Debbie Gastineau and Jack Judd were crowned Sweethearts Queen and King while Tina Sherwood and Eldon Pond were named Princess and Prince. The dance was a "girl ask boy" affair and many Elkland couples danced to the music of the Taylor Brothers.

Donna Lee added humor to program with her Senior class prophecy.

“Moonlight and Roses” Banquet Theme

The theme of the Junior-Senior Banquet, held March 20 at Reed's Restaurant, was “Moonlight and Roses”. The hall was beautifully decorated with red roses and candles. Juniors, Seniors, Faculty and School Board members were served a delicious prime rib dinner. The banquet committee, pictured at the right, was made up of Wanda Gilliam, Diana Wise, Donna Lee, Debbie Anway, Justine Fuentes and Jan Wright. The guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Bryant Whiting who told about RV in earlier days and brought out that some things remain the same such as stealing, cheating, and loyalty to one's country.

The 1969 Junior Prom was held March 29 in the Elkland Auditorium with couples dancing to the music of the Versatiles. Jerry Wiltbank was crowned Prom King by last year's queen, Jeanne Wiltbank. A radiant Prom Queen, Marta Jirsa looks on. Jack Johnson and Laura Harlan were Prince and Princess. Ted and Chris Udall, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Udall were crown bearers while Sherry Shumway daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Shumway, was flower girl. Junior sponsors, Mr. Don Johnson and Mr. Dick Lewis aided much in the preparations for the evening.

Energetic Juniors Work Hard to Make

A break in decorating finds Junior Debbie Anway entertaining some of the Junior boys. The room resembled a huge sunset.

As couples entered the auditorium on the night of the Junior Prom, they got the feeling of viewing a sunset from the deck of a ship. The ceiling was a panorama of streamers varying from orange, red and yellow to blue and purple. Hand rails around the perimeter of the auditorium made guests feel they really were aboard a ship. A bridge and pond with a water fountain were near the entrance under an arch of white napkins. A mural on the stage gave one the impression of sailing off into the sunset and completed the theme of "Red Sails in the Sunset". A rotating mirror ball in the center of the auditorium reflected colored lights shining on it and lit the floor in a pool of swirling specks of light. Just off the auditorium, the Junior Room was decorated with maroon crepe paper which gave the impression of a satin covered parlor. Chairs and couches had been placed in the room to make it more comfortable for Juniors, their dates and guests. Prom Chairman Tina Sherwood was assisted by committee members Todd Bosen, Debra Hall, Laura Harlan, Tom Joyner, Stacey Meacham, Jack Johnson, Travis Lytle, Debbie Gastineau, Linda Hearne, Danny Brown and Curtis Wooldridge to make it a most memorable prom.

"Red Sails in the Sunset" a Success

Many Elkland students from the Drama Club along with the A capella Choir participated in presenting a musical tragedy, "The Lowland Sea", May 1, 2 and 3. The one-act production was directed by Mrs. Betty King while Mr. Roy King was in charge of the music. Many hours went into its production but all in attendance felt it worthwhile.

Lead parts of Dorie Davis and Johnny Dee were played by Charlotte Wilkins and Dale Hall. Johnny is seen here telling Dorie good-bye as he sails for Singapore.

Music, Drama Students Present Lowland

The part of Nathaniel was played by Eldon Pond. His 3 children were played by Linda Hearne, Peggy Whiting and Scott Coombs.

Laura Harlan, RV Junior, was choreographer for the production and is seen here dancing with Debra Hall and Stacey Meacham.

Dorie finally accepts the fact that Johnny is dead, marries Nathaniel and assumes responsibility of children. Johnny returns, however.

Charlotte Wilkins received the National Choral Award from Mr. King. Russell Crosby won the John Philip Sousa Band Award and Tina Sherwood, Outstanding Music Student.

Tina Sherwood and Marianne Markham received Accompanist Awards at the Awards Banquet May 9.

Sea, Receive Honors at Awards Banquet

Pond, LeSueur, C. Wilkins, C. Hall, Crosby, Wiltbank and Slade earned 4th Year Band Awards while Pond, C. Wilkins, C. Hall, Haws, Anderson, D. Hall and LeSueur won 4th Year Choir Awards.

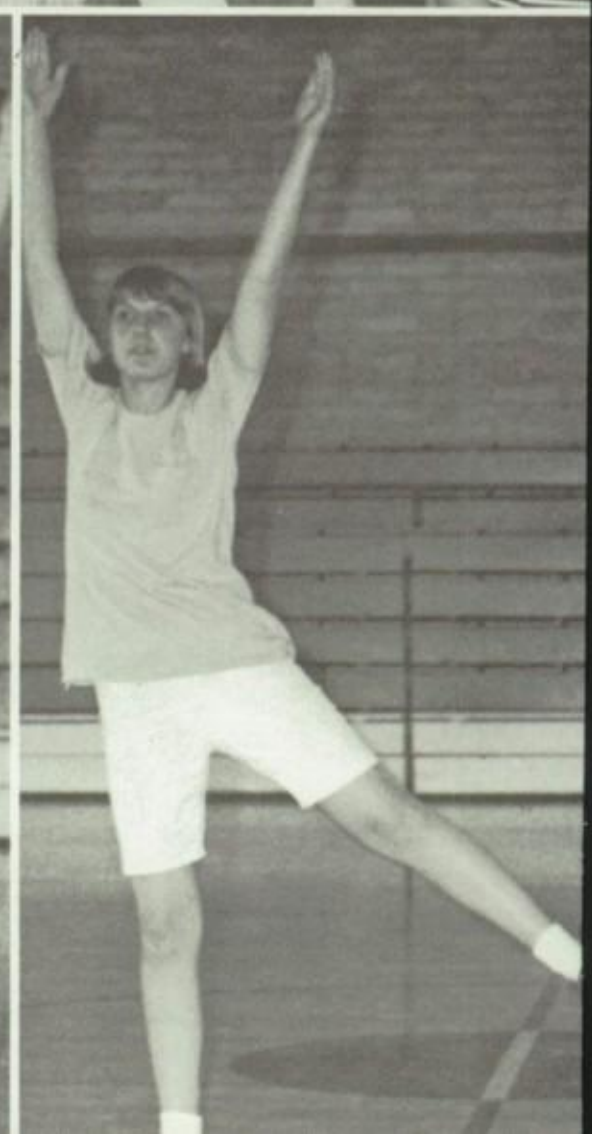

Hearne, Sherwood, Wilkins, Hall and Crosby earned "Superiors" on district solos. Many students were awarded Drama Pins and Jeanne Wiltbank was named the Outstanding Drama Student.

Cheerleaders, Pom Pons, S.B. Officers,

Pam Hall was elected Head Junior Varsity Cheerleader in Spring elections held May 16 in Elkland Gym. The student body chose Cheryl Slade, Rosalie Chavez and Laura Simpson to complete the team. Nineteen girls tried out for the position of Pom Pon Girl for next year and the following ten were elected in the same election: Kathy Baca, Justine Fuentes, Kathy Nicoll, Stacey Meacham (Head), Donna Lee, Valene Savedra, Marla Rogers, Jackie Bosen, Sylvia Butler and (not pictured) Annabelle Chavez. Varsity cheerleaders chosen the same day to cheer next year's varsity teams on to victory were Tina Sherwood, Debra Hall, Laura Harlan (Head), and (not pictured) Debbie Gastineau. All four will be Seniors. Fourteen terrified girls in all tried out for positions as cheerleader and some of them pictured below are Laura Simpson, Peggy Slade, Elaine Wilkins, Patricia Hamblin.

Delegates, Presidents Chosen in Spring

Kayle Haws was chosen Boys State Delegate with Todd Bosen his alternate. Linda Hearne and Marta Jirsa were Girls State Delegates with Tina Sherwood the alternate for that position. Many campaign speeches were heard by the student body May 1. Pictured below is candidate for Treasurer, Peggy Lou Slade, making her pitch for that job. She was defeated, however by Mary Lou Beck. Velda Allred was elected Sophomore Class President while Rick Savedra and Van Rohrer will lead the Junoir and Senior classes respectively as presidents next year. For the first time in Round Valley High's history, the Student Council will be composed of all girls—Marta
